Halloween Costume Party with Pizza and Bingo

We celebrated this annual fall hullabaloo with the theme

THE ADDAMS FAMILY vs THE MUNSTERS. The participation was so overwhelming we ran out of PIZZA! Hungry Howies came to the rescue and delivered enough to satisfy all ghouls and ghosts. Prizes were awarded for an array of costumes. Bingo winners were awarded Cash Prizes and the 50/50 winners went home very Happy. Thank you Elaine Burns who chaired this event and her very special Halloween Team. Cannot Wait for Next Year's Event.

 Lights of Love Tree Lighting Saturday 16th December 605 San Marino Drive 5.30pm

This is an annual outdoor neighborhood event. Christmas sweaters are encouraged and social doggies welcome. Enjoy the evening mingling with your friends and neighbors. Refreshments (you can BYOB) and Homemade Holiday Soup will be available. We also will be cooking and selling Hot Dogs and donating all proceeds to charity. You are welcome to bring a dish to share.

The Purpose of these Ornaments for this event is to remember someone special at this time of year. They are handmade "cookie cutter clay" ornaments which will be decorated to order or you can decorate your own. Come and show off your or your grandchildren's handiwork. Samples will be at the November meeting. A brief history of this event can be found at: <https://www.dlvn.org/lights-of-love-tree.htm>
